

PCT LTD Continues to Expand by Signing Long-Term Agreement with ACE

Little River, South Carolina--(Newsfile Corp. - October 31, 2019) - PCT LTD (OTC Pink: PCTL), through its operating subsidiary Paradigm Convergence Technologies Corporation ("PCT Corp.") continues to provide its world class cleaning and disinfection systems to hospitals at a rapid rate. A continuing flow of orders, both domestically and internationally, is expected moving forward.

ACE Janitorial, Inc., PCT Corp's primary distributor in the northeastern United States healthcare market, inked a long-term (60-month) contract with PCT Corp. to continue providing the Annihilyzer® Infection Control System, as a significant extension of services provided last year, to a major hospital in New York City. These services include patented RFID bottle tracking and 24-hour remote monitoring for regulatory compliance.

"Based on the success of our other installations and the corresponding decrease in Hospital Associated Infections at hospitals presently using the Annihilyzer Infection Control System, we believe our systems could become part of standard protocols in hundreds of health care facilities during the next 2-3 years," stated Gary Grieco, President and Chairman of PCT LTD.
